

Prunty Ranch Outfitters

2020 Elk Hunting Season

General Information:

- Hunts are primarily conducted on horseback, or in 4-wheel-drive vehicles, depending on area regulations, terrain, and hunters' physical capabilities. Hunting afoot is also an inherent aspect of elk hunting. It is very important to be honest about your physical condition when filling out the guest profile so we can best accommodate your needs.
- We offer fully guided hunts, drop camps, and game retrieval. Prices are as follows:
 - BULL ELK: $8,000 for up to 6 days
$4500 for up to 3 days
Please note: bull elk hunts are package deals. Clients that do not require all of their package days to harvest an elk are not refunded for days not used.
 - COW ELK: $1000 per day
 - DROP CAMP: $1200 per person
 - GAME RETRIEVAL: $350 for mule deer*
$500 for cow elk*
$750 for bull elk*

*pricing depends on location as well as time and resources required
- Our elk hunts are booked for 1, 2, or 3 people, which may include up to two non-hunting companions depending on the area you have drawn. (1 companion allowed for pack-in wilderness hunts.) Non-hunting companion fee is $300 per person, per day.
- All guests, hunting or not, must complete guest profile, liability release statement, and master guide service contract.
- For hunting on horseback, we furnish all of the horses, saddles and riding gear.
- Client must provide all of their clothing and personal gear, including a sub-zero rated sleeping bag. For packing into the wilderness, all clothing and gear must be packed in duffle bags (preferably waterproof). Absolutely no suitcases, trunks, etc. Please limit what you bring to necessities and no big, bulky items.
- All hunts require a 50% deposit at the time of booking, with the balance due upon arrival at the ranch/base camp. In the event that a client cancels a hunt, 50% of the deposit will be refunded. All hunts are to be paid in full before the first day of hunting.
- Hunters must have hunting license and tag on their person at all times.
- Prunty Ranch Outfitters is not responsible for inclement weather, natural game movement patterns, shot misses or declined shot opportunities, hunter's physical condition, personal emergencies, or hunts that are not completed for any reason.
